I. Purpose

In recognition of the unique role played by the Idaho Falls Police Department (IFPD) in service to the community, this Policy is intended to increase general efficiency, to promote harmonious and collaborative relations within the Department, and to protect the rights, well-being, safety, and security of Department employees.

This Police Personnel Policy is the result of collaboration among City employees and is intended to promote the highest ideals and values of the Department. This Policy is not and shall not be considered or interpreted as a collective bargaining agreement between the City and any employee or group of employees, whether formally or informally organized. The Council has reviewed and approved this Policy.

II. Application and Interpretation of this Policy

A. The provisions of this Police Personnel Policy shall apply to all Idaho Falls Police Department employees except where it is specifically indicated that the provision applies only to certain Department employees. Additionally, the City Personnel Policy manual shall continue to apply to all Police Department employees, except where a provision of this Police Personnel Policy is more specific, in which case a Police Department employee shall be subject to this Police Personnel Policy. The City Director of Human Resources is authorized by the Council to interpret which Personnel Policy shall be applied to a Police Department employee if an uncertainty or dispute arises about the application of this Police Personnel Policy.

B. Calculating Time.

“Day” as used in this Policy, shall mean one (1) twenty-four (24) hour calendar day beginning at midnight and ending twenty-four (24) hours later, whether or not the City is open for business. When time is calculated for a deadline, counting begins on the day following the date a document is required to be submitted or an event is due to occur. Where a due date falls on a day that the City is officially closed for business (e.g., a weekend or official or declared holiday), the due date is on the first date that the City is open for business following the due date.

III. Changes

Changes may be made to this Police Personnel Policy by the Council at the recommendation of the Police Department, Police Department employees, Human Resources, or Elected Officials. Department employees shall be given thirty (30) days advanced notification about proposed changes and given the opportunity, either orally or in writing, to offer comment regarding proposed changes to the Council.

IV. Management Decisions and Expectations

“Management”, as used in this Policy includes the Chief of Police, Captains, the Communications Manager, the Animal Control Director, and Lieutenants. The Police Department management staff possesses and retains the sole authority to operate and lead the Department. This authority includes, but is not limited to, the following examples:

1. Determining the mission of IFPD
2. Setting standards of Department service to be offered the public
3. Exercising control and discretion over its organization and operation
4. Disciplining or discharging non-probationary Police Officers for cause
5. Directing the work force
6. Hiring, assigning, or transferring employees
7. Determining the methods, means, and number of employees needed to carry out Department objectives
8. Introducing new or improved methods, police policies, or equipment
9. Changing existing police policies, methods, or equipment
10. Relieving employees because of lack of work
11. Taking whatever actions necessary to carry out the objective of the Department in situations of emergency
12. Establishing positions of employment and classifications for positions
13. Establishing performance standards and/or revising performance standards to determine acceptable performance levels of employees

V. Employee Expectations

1. Expectations.

- A. Employees may present their views to the Management of the Department and to the City at any time. Additionally, the Chief of Police will meet with employees (including employees from all Department Bureaus and all levels of employment in the Department) in at least three (3) separate meetings to listen to employee views and suggestions during the months of February and March of each year.

At the request of the Chief of Police or Department employees, a Human Resource Department representative will attend these meetings.

The Chief of Police will present the results of these meetings in writing to the Mayor and Department employees by April 10th annually. Any Department employee may present their ideas or concerns to the Mayor and Council if they disagree with the written recommendations as contained in the Chief's report

2. Investigations.

- A. Employees may be accompanied and assisted by a representative of their choice at all times when subject to investigation of alleged acts of misconduct. No representative shall be a person who is the subject of the same investigation. Employees shall be granted a reasonable amount of time to obtain such representation prior to any internal investigation or pre-disciplinary hearing.

Employees' access to representation does not apply to performance based, informal, routine, or unplanned discussions between employees and their supervisors.

- B. Procedures set out in this Policy will be followed by the Department during investigative interviews. Such procedures do not apply to routine, initial inquiries, coaching, counseling, instruction, or direction given to employees by their supervisors.

Prior to an internal investigative interview, employees will be advised of the following:

- a. The nature of the matter being investigated

- b. The specific allegation(s) of misconduct, if any, against the employee being interviewed
- c. The date, time, and location of the matter that gave rise to the allegation(s),
- d. All rights and obligations pertaining to the Garrity rule
- e. The employee's access to representation, as provided in Section 2. A. above

The interview will specifically and narrowly focus on the job related conduct of the employee.

- C. The Investigator. Persons conducting the interview will not use offensive language or threaten disciplinary action. An employee who refuses to respond to questions or submit to interviews will be informed that failure to answer questions narrowly and directly related to job-related conduct may result in disciplinary action.

Persons conducting the interview shall not be a person with significant personal, first-hand knowledge of the facts giving rise to the investigation.

Except for the Chief of Police, persons making the final disposition in an investigation may not be the person who made the initial allegations(s), either directly or indirectly.

- D. Dispositions and Time limits. Employees shall be notified in writing of the final disposition of an investigation, including a disposition of each allegation, and the disciplinary action to be administered, if applicable, within ninety (90) days following the date the Department received the allegations that form the basis of the investigation. An extension may be granted by the Chief. The employee shall be notified in writing of any such extension, the reason for the extension, and the anticipated investigation conclusion date.

In the event an employee is notified that a final disposition of an investigation includes a finding of misconduct which may result in time off without pay, demotion, or termination, a pre-disposition hearing will be held no sooner than fourteen (14) days and no later than thirty (30) days following hand delivery to the employee of notice of the pre-disposition hearing date, time, and location unless another date for the pre-disposition hearing is otherwise mutually agreed by the employee and the Department.

- E. Access and entries into Employee Personnel Files. Employees shall, upon reasonable notice, be provided access to their own individual Internal Affairs files (only after such investigation is completed) or Personnel files.

A document adverse to an employee's employment may not be entered in their Personnel file (which is a file different from and does not include any Internal Affairs files) without the employee having first read and signed the document.

The adverse entry may be made, after the employee reads the document, even if the employee refuses to sign it. The employee's refusal to sign shall be noted on the adverse document. The employee will have fourteen (14) days from the date the employee reads and is asked to sign the adverse document within which to file a written response or comment to any adverse document entered in their personnel file. The employee's written response, if any, shall be attached to and accompany the adverse document but the adverse document shall remain in the Personnel file.

VI. Hours of Service and Overtime

The Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and its regulations outline the Department's legal obligations to pay minimum wages and overtime. Nothing in this Section VI alters the calculation of employee step and grade classification, wage rate, or overtime rate.

Compensation for the employee in this Section VI, where applicable, is in addition to the regular step and grade hourly rate of pay that includes any additional hourly compensation due to longevity, language facility, and the like (referred to in this Section VI. as the employee's "hourly base rate").

1. Sworn police officers shall fall under the FLSA fourteen (14) day, eighty (80) hour work period for overtime consideration.

All other police department employees shall fall under the FLSA seven (7) day, forty (40) hour work week for overtime compensation.

2. Changes in regular work days off. If the Department fails to give an employee at least fourteen (14) days' prior notice of a change to the employee's regular days off, the Department will pay the employee for all time worked at a rate of one and one-half times the employee's hourly base rate.
3. Changes in Scheduled Hours. If IFPD fails to give employees at least fourteen (14) days' prior notice of a change to the employee's scheduled hours, the Department will pay the employee for all time worked outside the regularly scheduled hours at the rate of one and one-half times the employee's hourly base rate. This Subsection VI.3. applies to Sworn Police Officers, Dispatch employees, and Animal Control Enforcement Officers only.
4. All approved unscheduled hours worked by employees, such as shift extensions, shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half times the employee's hourly base rate. This Subsection VI.4. applies to Sworn Police Officers and Dispatch employees only.
5. An employee who works an extra shift, outside of their regularly scheduled hours pursuant to a grant or billable work detail (such as airport operations, DUI saturation grants, seatbelt enforcement grants, school resource functions, etc.), shall be paid actual hours worked at a rate of one and one-half times the employee's hourly base rate. This Subsection VI.5. applies to Sworn Police Officers and Dispatch employees only.
6. Compensation for Court/Administrative Proceedings. Employees shall receive compensation for a court or administrative proceeding appearance as a witness subpoenaed by the City, the State of Idaho, the United States or a party to a legal proceeding when the appearance is related to the employee's official duties as follows.

Court or administrative proceeding appearances made while on-duty shall constitute normal hours of work and will be compensated accordingly.

Employees who are required to attend court or other administrative proceedings while off-duty will be paid a minimum of four (4) hours at the rate of one and one-half times the employee's hourly base rate. If the off-duty required attendance is for more than four (4) hours, then the employee shall be paid with actual time worked at the rate of one and one-half times the employee's hourly base rate.

If the court or other administrative proceeding starts immediately at the end of the employee's regular scheduled work shift or starts before the employee's shift ends and extends past when the employee's shift is scheduled to end, the employee will be paid for the actual time worked past the end of their shift at the rate of one and one-half the employee's hourly base rate.

If the prosecutor or subpoenaing authority does not cancel the employee's appearance request forty-eight (48) hours before the court or administrative hearing is scheduled, the employee will be paid as described in this Section VI. 6, as long as they were physically able to attend the court or administrative hearing on time. It is the employee's responsibility to call the prosecutor or subpoenaing authority not less than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the scheduled court or administrative proceeding to see whether their appearance is still required.

7. Standby. Standby is when an employee's off duty activities are restricted in such a way that they are available for an immediate return to work. Employees who are placed on standby shall be compensated with two (2) hours at the employee's hourly base rate for each twenty-four (24) hour "day" they are on standby status. This Subsection VI.7. applies to Detectives only.
8. Callout. Employees who have been released from their scheduled work shift and have been directed to perform work by an appropriate Bureau head or designated representative without at least twenty-four (24) hours advance notice or scheduling shall receive a minimum of two (2) hours compensation at one and one half times the employee's hourly base rate.

Off-duty employees who are directed to perform work at the employee's current physical location shall receive a minimum of one (1) hour compensation at one and one half times their wage rate.

9. Compensatory Time. Employees may request compensatory time off in lieu of pay for overtime, and such compensatory time may be allowed, subject to approval of the Bureau Commander.

Employees shall not accrue more than one hundred twenty (120) hours of compensatory time. Employees who have accrued one hundred twenty (120) hours of compensatory time off, shall, for additional overtime hours worked, be compensated with pay at one and one half time their regular rate of pay.

Utilization of compensatory time. Employees may use their compensatory time when staffing is sufficient to take time off. When there is not sufficient staffing to take time off, compensatory time can only be used if there is someone willing to cover the time for the employee. The Department will attempt to find someone willing to cover the time and will not order someone else to work so that an employee can take compensatory time off.

Employees may cash in up to eighty (80) hours of their accrued compensatory time at the end of each year by notifying the Office of the Chief between April 1 and April 30 and shall be converted in October of the same year.

10. Out of Classification work. When an employee is assigned to work temporarily for forty (40) hours or more at a position in a higher pay classification, the employee shall be compensated as if they had been moved to that higher pay classification but only during the duration of the temporary assignment. The employee will have no expectation that the temporary out of classification assignment is a promotion or is permanent.

VII. Vacation and Hold Days

1. Definitions applicable to this Section VII:

Hold day: Holiday compensation given to an employee as an extra day off with pay.

Investigations and Special Operations Bureau: A Department Bureau comprised of Major Crimes detectives, Special Investigations Unit detectives, Crime Scene and Lab technician, School Resource officers, DARE officers, Airport officers, SWAT Team selections, Bomb Squad selections, and Crowd Control Team selections.

Seniority: Cumulative time of service in the Police Department, based upon date of hire.

Time on Team Seniority: The cumulative, consecutive time of service in a given Department, Bureau, or subdivision based on the date of assignment to such Department, Bureau, or subdivision.

Sworn Personnel: A sworn police officer

Non-Sworn personnel: An employee of the Police Department who is not a sworn police officer

2. Vacation Time. Vacation time is an important benefit for Police Department employees. Vacation time can help reduce stress and improve employee performance. Employees will accrue vacation at different rates based on years of service and as calculated using the method set out in the City Personnel Manual.

3. Shift Bidding.
 - a. Patrol Bureau sworn personnel assigned to Patrol Bureau will have the opportunity to bid for use of accrued vacation time annually when the Patrol Bureau shift bid is being conducted. The shift bid is done by Department Seniority. Each officer will have the opportunity during the shift bidding process to use up to, but no more than their yearly accrual of vacation time. At the conclusion of the shift bidding process and throughout that same calendar year, any vacation time that has carried over from previous years may be used on a first come, first served basis, and only when mandatory minimum staffing requirements are met for those effected shifts.

Lieutenants and Sergeants assigned to the Patrol Bureau will bid for vacation time by Department seniority according to the date of promotion with respect to their rank. This Subsection VII.3.a. applies to the Patrol Bureau Sworn Police Officers employees only.

- b. Investigations and Special Operations Bureau sworn police officer personnel assigned to the Investigations Bureau will have the opportunity to bid for vacation time annually based on their Time on Team Seniority. Officers assigned to the Investigations Bureau may bid up to, but no more than their yearly accrual of vacation time during this process. At the conclusion of the vacation bid process any vacation time that has carried over from previous years may be used on a first come first served basis according to minimum staffing requirements within the Investigations Bureau.

Lieutenants and Sergeants assigned to the Investigation and Special Operations Bureau will bid for vacation time by Department Seniority according to the date of promotion with respect to their rank. This Subsection VII.3.b. applies to the Investigation and Special Operations Bureau Sworn Police Officers employees only.

4. Hold Days. Hold Days may be accrued instead of holiday pay for the eleven (11) official City observed holidays per year. Hold Days are also earned if an officer is on scheduled days off when an observed holiday occurs during the days off. Hold Days will be used on a day-for-day basis regardless of whether the employee acquired such Hold Day working an 8, 10, or 12 hour shift. Hold Days are available for use when staffing levels are above minimum staffing levels, as determined by Management. No employee will be allowed to carry more than eleven (11) total Hold Days at any time.

VIII. Promotions

Promotions in the Department shall be upon job performance and competitive examinations. All candidates for a promotion must meet the job requirements for the position during the testing cycle. Candidates will not be eligible for promotion until the minimum time requirements for the position have been met. Written examination(s) may be given as often as needed, as determined by the Chief, in order to establish a viable eligibility list. A minimum written test score appropriate for each examination will be determined and announced at least fourteen (14) days prior to the examination date. Notice of openings for promotions shall be posted on the Department of Human Resources web page at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date upon which the written examination for the position shall be conducted. This Subsection VIII applies to Sworn Police Officers only.

Tests and consideration for promotional placement may include a written examination, assessment center, and staff evaluations. The methods used and weight to be given grades in each area utilized will be determined by the Chief and announced at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date upon which the examination is to be given.

Where two (2) or more applicants for promotion receive identical grades, their ranking on the eligible list shall be determined by preference given to employment seniority.

The total number of persons allowed to participate in the Department assessment process shall be determined in advance by the Chief. If there are more applicants than the number of positions available for testing in the assessment process, the candidates receiving the highest written exam scores shall be selected for participation in the assessment.

The finished candidate for promotion ranking will form an eligibility list for promotion to the position and will apply to all current openings existing at the time the list is established. The Chief will select, at the Chief's discretion, from the top three (3) candidates on the promotional eligibility list for a period of one (1) year following the initial promotions. Any promotion(s) made following the initial promotions for openings existing at the time the list is established will be subject to and dependent upon an interview and re-evaluation by the Chief of Police based upon the candidate's then-current performance and any pending internal investigations. At the Chief's sole discretion, the promotional eligibility list may be utilized for promotions for up to one (1) additional year following the expiration of the initial one (1) year period the promotion eligibility was established.

IX. Seniority

Seniority shall be applied as described in Section VII for shift bidding and vacation bidding, and as described in Section VIII for breaking ties in promotions. Seniority shall not be used for any other purpose in this Police Personnel Policy.

X. Grievance Procedure

Purpose.

The purpose of this grievance procedure is to maintain a productive, cooperative, efficient and experienced work force, thereby enhancing the public welfare; to not unjustifiably terminate or treat employees inappropriately; to afford the City administrative staff and employees opportunity to resolve errors, disputes, without the need for judicial intervention. This grievance procedure is the exclusive procedure to be applied to Department non-probationary sworn officers. All other Department employees shall utilize grievance procedures set out in Section XXIX of the City Personnel Policy Manual.

Grievance Defined.

“Grievance” is any complaint by a regular employee who is subject to this Grievance Procedure and related to the following:

1. A disciplinary action applied to an employee,
2. Action taken by an employee which results in unfair or discriminatory treatment, inequity, or arbitrary or capricious action relative to another employee, based on a legally protected status,
3. Any interpretation or dispute regarding the terms and conditions of this Policy, or
4. Retaliation or recrimination as result of any action by a superior that violates public policy or law.

No Retaliation.

An employee who files a grievance shall be free from restraint, interference, discrimination, or reprisal by the City, its officers or employees, for having filed a grievance.

Privacy.

All documents, records and information generated, compiled or kept in conjunction with a grievance shall be exempt from disclosure to the public to the extent allowed by the Idaho Code (especially Title 74, Chapter 1 commonly known as the “Idaho Public Records Act”). An employee who files a grievance may obtain copies of records related to a grievance pursuant to the Idaho Public Records Act.

Commencing a Grievance.

Every employee is encouraged not to file a grievance until after he or she has made a reasonable effort to resolve the subject matter of the grievance with his or her immediate supervisor or other person against whom the grievance could be filed. Examples of reasonable effort include: meeting informally with the person(s) affected to discuss the matter; engaging a supervisor to assist in resolving a matter; suggesting a compromise or resolution; self-assessment; reviewing a policy with a peer or supervisor to clarify expectations.

A grievance shall be commenced by filing the grievance with the Chief of Police. Such grievance shall be in writing and shall contain the following:

1. The name and job classification of the grievant;
2. The date of the alleged action(s) or omission(s) which form the basis of the grievance;
3. A statement of the facts, materials, and arguments supporting the grievance;
4. A list of all articles, sections, or rules of the Department, City policy, or law which are alleged to have been violated; and
5. The remedy or resolution sought.

Failure of the City to comply with the time limits specified in this grievance process shall automatically and immediately advance the grievance to the next Step in the grievance process. Failure of a grievant to comply with the time limits specified in this grievance policy automatically and immediately results in the denial of the grievance.

The time limits herein stated may be extended only by prior written mutual agreement of the parties.

Grievance Process:

Step 1. Chief's review. The grievance process shall be initiated by submitting the written grievance to the Chief of Police within fourteen (14) days following the disputed grieved action or inaction or the date that the employee knew or should have known of the action or inaction, whichever is earlier. This requirement is meant to encourage prompt reporting and resolution of the matter grieved.

Within fourteen (14) days following the Chief's receipt of the written grievance, the Chief shall meet with the grievant (and his or her representative, if requested) to discuss the grievance.

The Chief shall provide a written response to the grievant within fourteen (14) days following such meeting.

Step 2. Mayor's review. If the grievant does not agree with the Chief's response in Step 1, the grievance may be submitted by the grievant to the Mayor within fourteen (14) days following the Chief's response.

Within fourteen (14) days following receipt of the grievance and materials from Step 1, the Mayor shall provide a written response to the grievant.

Step 3. Independent Review. If the grievant does not agree with the Mayor's response in Step 2, the grievance may be submitted for independent third-party review in the following manner:

Within twenty one (21) days following the grievant's receipt of the Mayor's response in Step 2, the grievant shall deliver a written request for independent review to the City Human Resources (HR) Director. The grievant and the HR Director shall meet to select an independent reviewer from a list of qualified reviewers within fourteen (14) days following the receipt of the demand from the grievant for such review.

The HR Director shall maintain a list of not less than five (5) qualified independent reviewers. If the parties are unable to agree upon an independent reviewer, the HR Director and grievant shall alternately strike a name from the list (the first to strike a name shall be determined by coin flip) until the name of only one (1) individual from the list remains. The remaining person shall be the independent reviewer for the grievance.

The independent reviewer shall be selected and engaged within fourteen (14) days following a meeting between the grievant and HR Director to select a reviewer. The review will commence within fourteen (14) days following the reviewer's receipt of grievance material provided by the HR Director. The failure of the reviewer to commence and to complete review within the time periods established shall result in selection of a new reviewer, who will proceed with the process outlined in this Step 3 until a review is completed.

The scope of review by the independent reviewer in Step 3 shall be limited to whether the action taken against the grievant was or resulted in something unfair, discriminatory, inequitable, arbitrary, or capricious, based upon 1. a legally protected status, or 2. whether any Department or City policy was vague, subject to misinterpretation, or erroneously or wrongly applied to the grievant. The reviewer shall have no authority to rule contrary to, expand upon, or eliminate any terms or conditions of a Department policy or City Personnel policy.

The grievant and the City may submit materials and/or testimony in support of their relative positions, the weight, materiality, and persuasiveness of which shall be determined solely by the reviewer. The reviewer may request additional information or clarification of any party or person and may independently research the matter; however, the reviewer shall have no authority to compel production of any information nor have the authority to compel the presence or testimony of any person. The reviewer shall not attribute any adverse motive or inference to materials not proffered by the grievant or the City.

The reviewer shall be requested to provide the parties with a written statement of relevant criteria and standards and a decision justifying the reviewer's decision regarding the grievance within thirty (30) days of commencement of the review.

An informal group comprised of the Chief of Police, a representative from the HR Department and a representative from the City Attorney's office will meet to confer about the reviewer's decision within fourteen (14) days following the City's receipt of the decision (to consider it and to take action, if any, deemed appropriate).

XI. Boot and Uniform Cleaning Allowance

All Department employees who are required by the Chief to maintain and be in an official Department uniform as part of their employment shall receive four hundred fifty dollars ($450) annually to be paid on the first pay period of July, if employed on such date. This Subsection XI applies to Sworn Police Officers, Animal Control, and Parking Enforcement employees only.

XII. Career Path

Subject to approval and funding by the Council, the Department will develop and promote a Career Path Program whose purpose is to develop highly motivated, educated and skilled non-probationary Police Officers, Sergeants, Lieutenants, and Captains. This Program is intended to encourage and reward these employees for improving and expanding their law enforcement skills. The Career Path Program will be designed to be available to participants who have received an overall acceptable or better on their two (2) most recent performance evaluations. The Career Path Program will be proposed to consist of four (4) categories of achievement: education, leadership academy, physical fitness, and skills. This Subsection XII applies to Sworn Police Officers only.
